

Career Readiness Collective Action Network
Mapping Moving Trains Learning Series - #6
Downtown Pensacola Library
Agenda | August 16, 2018

Welcome and Introductions	2:05 p.m.
Achieve Escambia Director Kimberly Krupa Check-in question: What does “college access” mean to you?
Featured Presenter: Florida College Access Network	2:20 p.m.
Amy Bolick, community relations and program manager
Discussion: College Ready Escambia & Escambia County FAFSA Challenge	3 p.m.
Full CAN
Action Commitments and Next Steps	3:30 p.m.
Implementing the FAFSA Challenge - Goals and Milestones
Announcements/Wrap-Up/Door Prize	3:50 p.m.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Save the Date: American College Application Campaign Webinars August 21, 2018 at 12:00 pm CST “Why Host an American College Application Campaign” September 6, 2018 at 12:00 pm CST “Implementing #WhyApply Social Media Strategies Into Your College Application Campaign” Friday, September 21: Save the date: #WhyApply day. Please plan to participate via social media. Find out more at acenet.edu.

Network Meeting #6 Feedback Form: August 16, 2018

Thank you for spending time with us today. Please help us evaluate this network meeting by completing a short survey. We will use your feedback to improve how we learn together.

1. The content presented helped me understand the Florida College Access Network model and how it applies to the work we're doing in Escambia County.

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Comments:

2. What is one thing you learned at this network meeting?

Wow. I learned ...

3. What is confusing or needs clarification?

Help. I'm confused about ...

4. Who is missing from the conversation? Can you commit to inviting them to our next Collective Action Network? Please note your response below and we will follow up.

Person/Organization we need to include in our CAN:

Can you invite them?